Notes

Valiance Expedition reputation starts at Neutral (0/3000). It is one of four factions comprised in the Alliance Vanguard in Northrend

Last Rites: it is good to have a healer for this one. Take the first port and then work your way (together) immediately to the port just above you and port again to the roof. If you die during the fight, you should be able to return to Thassarian in The Wailing Ziggurat to turn in the quest, if someone finished the quest.
